

I think the no call list, federal and Wisconsin, are working just right. I protest any change that is proposed for either. I am finally free of unsolicited calls that interrupt and intrude into my life. I can think of no good reason to change. It will not increase business. I always made it a point not to do business with those that called me unsolicited.

Charles Cobb